Famille Perrin Réserve Côtes du Rhône Rosé 2012

A faithful expression of Côtes du Rhône Rosé, keep this wine on hand to enjoy during the summer.

PRESENTATION

An intense rosé typical of Côtes du Rhône.

THE VINTAGE

2012 is a vintage of contrasts with a very mild start of the year and a freezing month of February.

A fresh and humid spring, followed by a windy and dry month of July and a very hot month of August.

The harvesting conditions were ideal. All these conditions make a great vintage.

LOCATION

This wine is produced from our vineyard Le Grand Prébois in Orange.

TERROIR

There are 2 types of soils at Le Grand Prébois, stone, clay and limestone on one side and gravel and clay on the other.

AGEING

Bleeding in stainless steel tanks.

VARIETALS

Cinsault, Grenache, Mourvèdre, Syrah

SERVING

Serve chilled with light foods, Mediterranean dishes or as an aperitif

TASTING

Colour: nice red and pink tones.

Nose: floral, aniseed, brown sugar.

Mouth: rich, balanced and fresh. Aromas of white flowers, cherries, and caramel sweets.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

"2012 Perrin Family Reserve Rosé (Cotes du Rhone, France). The least-seen hue in the Perrin Family's reliable "step up" from their ubiquitous (and solid) La Vieille Ferme brand, the rosé uses a high percentage of the southern French specialty Cinsaut grape for this especially succulent, wickedly versatile sipper. Perhaps it's the soft pinkish-orange color that tricks the mind to look for orange blossoms and orange sherbet in the aroma. But both are there, in a lovely and captivating drink. $11."

"Pale lipstick pink. Some fermentation aromas. Quite a bit of chew and much firmed and drier on the finish than the Vieille Ferme counterpart."

87/100

"(made from cinsault, syrah, grenache and mourvèdre): Light orange. Spice-accented red berry and cherry aromas show good clarity and pick up a subtle floral quality with aeration. On the palate, juicy raspberry and bitter cherry flavors are given a refreshingly bitter edge by a suggestion of orange zest. Closes on a spicy note, with good energy and a lingering hint of white pepper."

International Wine Cellar, 18/06/2014

88/100

"Pale pink, dry and juicy with bright plum and berry fruit ; racy, fresh and balanced. 60% Grenache, 20% Syrah, 20% Mourvèdre."
