TASTING

The colour is golden yellow with bright undertones.

The nose is fresh on honey, garrigue and gunpowder.

The mouth is complex and fresh. The acidity is there but we can recognise the terroir with notes of underwood and vegetal notes.

This is a round and fragrant wine with complexity and depth that can be enjoyed now.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

"Soft and fleshy. The ripe pear and honey flavors are modestly proportioned, but they stay with you through the finish." Wine Spectator, 15/04/1993
