评论与奖项

"Grab and Go. For those evenings that call for a quick decision, when work has drown on and there's no mood (nor time) for dilly-dallying, it's easy to count on La Vieille Ferme. It comes in all stripes - well, at least the white-pink-red colours of wine - and the lasest vintage of Blanc is particularly boisterous. A blend of four grapes common to the southern Rhone (Bourboulenc, Grenache Blanc, Ugni Blanc and Vermentino), it's both robust and vibrant, with nutty notes, stone fruit, and green citrus leading to a lingering fruit finish. Great intensity overall belies the light price point, making this a truth midweek sipper."

"My favourite example is Vieille Ferme. Made by Perrin, this white is both cheap and very, very tasty. Best of all the SLGA stocks it. Hell, even some licensees in rural areas stock it. The grapes are bourboulenc, ugni blanc, grenache blanc, and vermentino if you care.

It has a great crisp fruity palate with a bouquet of grass, citrus and nuts. Lord knows how many bottles Ive pressed on unsuspecting shoppers at the SLGA. Nobody knows what youre asking for when you ask for Vieille Ferme (pronced Vee-ay Firm) but they all know what you mean when you ask for the chicken wine."
