THE ART OF ROSÉ

Miraval Rosé Côtes de Provence 2015

ブドウ品種

Cinsault, Grenache, Rolle, Syrah

レビュー&受賞歴

"This is a light rosé made from Cinsault, Grenache, Rolle, and Syrah with delicate floral aromas and a palate of firm acidity, plush red fruitiness, and a bit of salinity."

Naples Daily News, 04/05/2016

"Miraval Rosé 2015 is a nectar of the gods. It is nature at its best, grapes in perfect harmony in the vineyard, and sun of course, because we are in Provence."

"This crisp and precise 2015 has a lovely mineral freshness with delicate aromas of citrus, red fruits and white flowers. On the palate, balanced and elegant with a very nice tension leading to a long, aromatic finish."

Wine Enthusiast, 01/07/2016

"I tasted the 2015 Miraval Rosé a while ago in London, and it 's even more delicious and complete now. The excellent 2015 vintage brings extra fruit depth and finesse. Do deploy with a good meal like grilled whole fish with abundant herbs and lemon to match the citrusy freshness."

"Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie do more than act. With the help of winemaker Marc Perrin they also produce a superb rosé from a vineyard they bought in 2012 in the heart of Provence. A beautiful pale pink, its mouth-watering ripe strawberry flavour balanced by an underlying acidity has already won it accolades. The perfect summer drink."

The Independent, 15/06/2016

"This floral-tasting wine has a delightful, light finish that lingers on the tip of your tongue. Miraval's crisp, clean Rose also has hints of fresh raspberries that go great with oysters and other seafood."

"Pale orange. Expressive scents of fresh red berries, orange zest, white flowers and chalky minerals show excellent clarity and lift. Fine-grained and focused on the palate, offering zesty red currant, strawberry and tangerine flavors and an exotic touch of honey on the back half. The floral note comes back strong on a silky, very persistent, mineral-tinged finish."

Josh Reynolds, Vinous, 21/06/2016

"Pale pink. Delicate aromas of citrus, raspberries and white flowers, and a touch of pepper. Quite fresh on the palate, some volume too and a nice concentration that makes it persistent, with a dryness and a touch of a salty minerality in the finish. I find that many of the rosés in the area have too much alcohol for the body and concentration. This one not."

"Alluring, with peach and mango aromas that give way to a stony, racy-edged core of white cherry and strawberry flavors. Offers a chiseled finish."

Wine Spectator, 30/09/2016

"Elegant and refined, and one of the better rosés available at the SAQ this summer. You ' ll find strawberry fruit, peppery spice and a bitter bite on the finish. Length is impressive. Allow this to warm slightly to get the true benefit of the fruit. Drink now. Food pairing idea: apéritif, fish soup, mussels with tomato and herb-based sauce."

Bill Zacharkiw, Montreal Gazette, 06/08/2016

"Perrin blends four grapes, which yields a gorgeous wine with delicate pink hues, aromas of rose petal and raspberry and brilliant savory freshness."

"The juicy, strawberry, underbrush and floral scented 2015 Côtes de Provence Rosé is medium-bodied, nicely textured and balanced, with bright, crisp acidity coming through on the finish. It's a classic, beautifully made Rosé to enjoy over the coming summer months."
