Famille Perrin Côtes du Rhône Villages Rouge - 2012

Originating from different terroirs in Côtes du Rhône Villages, this wine is one of the most faithful illustrations of the Southern Rhône Valley

PRESENTATION

This wine is produced by the Perrin family, using the same viticultural and wine-making techniques used at Château de Beaucastel

THE VINTAGE

2012 is a vintage of contrasts with a very mild start of the year and a freezing month of February.

A fresh and humid spring, followed by a windy and dry month of July and a very hot month of August.

The harvesting conditions were ideal. All these conditions make a great vintage.

LOCATION

Just 20% of the Côtes-du-Rhône vineyard is entitled to add the word 'Villages' after the words 'Côtes-du-Rhône'. These are the best vineyard sites.

TERROIR

Stony terraces over clay and limestone and gravel.

AGEING

The harvest is sorted and destemmed. Vinification then takes place in stainless steel and oak. Ageing in tanks and Foudre (25%) for a year.

VARIETALS

Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre

SERVING

Serve at 18°C

TASTING

Appearance: Dark ruby colour, with purple reflections

Nose: Intense, macerated cherries and licorice.

Mouth: Full-bodied with a generous attack, a pleasant freshness and elegant tannins.

This well-balanced wine shows a typical expression of southern Rhône wine with a thyme and rosemary aftertaste

16,5/20

"50% Syrah. Rather lurid crimson with shocking pink rim. Warm, ripe, alluring nose. Zesty palate attack. Quite lifted and racy. Menthol and balsamic notes. Quite dry on the end but the amount of fruit on the mid palate is sufficiently convincing."

"Grenache and syrah dominate the blend, but it includes mourvedre, carignan and cinsault to give it an effusive mélange of flavors. The Perrin Family makes some of the best Châteauneuf-du-Papes, so it is not surprising their Cotes du Rhone is so dependable."

Capital Gazette, 14/10/2015

88/100

"Bright ruby-red. Raspberry, cherry pit and a hint of licorice on the spice-tinged nose. Warm and fleshy in style, offering smoky red fruit and bitter chocolate flavors that turn sweeter with air. Full-flavored but not at all heavy, delivering supple tannins that build steadily through the finish."
