年份概况

The 2011 vintage is a vintage of contrasts. That is to say an unusually hot, dry spring followed by a wet and rainy beginning of July and then an Indian summer lasting until the end of October. Carefully sorting and destemming the harvest allowed for a great vintage, particularly for the late harvest varieties.

评论与奖项

Wine Spectator

87/100

"Notes of fresh white peach and green almond mingle in the floral-framed white, followed by a flash of melon rind on the finish."

Wine Spectator, 31/10/2012

"Moderately complex in style, this is a full bodied, finely flavored blend with good balance and a very long finish. It tastes of peach, pear, and lemon peel aromas/flavors. Exceptional."

Restaurant Wine, 31/10/2012

87/100

"Perrin's other inexpensive wines include the Perrin 2011 Cotes du Rhone Reserve white. A blend of 50% Grenache Blanc, 20% Viognier and the rest Marsanne and Roussanne, this wine has loads of minerality along with some tropical fruit notes and intriguing white currants and quince. It is truly a serious wine and an ideal aperitif or food wine."

Wine Advocate, 01/10/2012

89/100

"Smooth, ripe and rich with density and tangy fruit; clean, bright and long."

Anthony Dias, Blue Reviews, 01/11/2012

86/100

"A crowd-Pleaser, this is both rich in lemon pith flavor and zesty in acidity. Its brightness will bring back a little summer with a celery root salad this winter."

Wine & Spirits, 01/02/2013

"Elegantly flavored, full bodied and crisp, a wine with peach, lemon peel, honey and roasted nut aromas/flavors and a crisp, persistent finish. Exceptional value."

Restaurant Wine

89/100

"This is a sly little bees-wax scented Rhone white that will work into your affections. the first sip or two might leave you unimpressed, but suddenly the centripetal force pulls you in to a core of aromatic ripe fruit. True, a little more length would be really terrific - but then the wine would probably cost twice as much."

Marguerite Thomas, Wine Review Online, 10/09/2013
