

CHÂTEAU DE BEAUCASTEL

Château de Beaucastel Blanc Roussanne Vieilles Vignes 2011

VORSTELLUNG

Er gilt als einer der besten Weißweine in Frankreich, nur 6000 Flaschen dieses Weines werden hergestellt. Hergestellt zu 100% von sehr alten Rebstöcken des Roussanne, geerntet leicht über dem Reifepunkt. Dieser außergewöhnliche Wein muss innerhalb 3 Jahren oder nach 15 Jahren getrunken werden. Genießen zu gastronomischer Küche.

DER JAHRGANG

Der Jahrgang 2011 ist ein Jahrgang der Kontraste. Ein ungewöhnlich heißer und trockener Frühling gefolgt von einem nassen und regnerischen Juli und dann einem Altweibersommer, der bis Ende Oktober andauerte. Sorgfältige Aussortierung ebenso wie sorgfältiges Abbeeren machten aus der Ernte einen Spitzenjahrgang, vor allem was die Sorten, die spät geerntet wurden, angeht.

LAGE

Château de Beaucastel hat 7 Hektar in weißen Reben bepflanzt.

TERROIR

Molasse Meeresböden des Miozän mit Alpen Ablagerungen bedeckt

REIFE

Die Trauben werden von Hand geerntet und in kleine Kisten sortiert, pneumatisch gepresst. Absetzen der Säfte und Reifung (30% in der Eiche, 70% Tanks). Abgefüllt nach 8 Monaten.

VERKOSTUNG

Beautiful golden colour.

The nose is slightly woody with an explosion of honey, peaches, exotic fruit and an exceptional richness and intensity.

The mouth has a remarkable texture, thick but fresh. We find notes of white flowers and honeysuckle, lavender, honey and orange zest. The balance is perfect especially with the minerality, coming from the limestone, gives this wine a great texture. A great vintage of Roussanne Vieilles Vignes.

TESTBERICHTE UND AUSZEICHNUNGEN

Wine Spectator

96/100

"Dense, with creamy layers of pear, apple, green plum and acacia honey all carried by well-embedded acidity. The long finish lets salted butter, chamomile and macadamia nut flavors unfurl nicely, but there's still plenty in reserve for cellaring."

James Molesworth, Wine Spectator, 31/10/2012

98/100

"The Beaucastel 2011 Roussanne Vieilles Vignes is another remarkable wine. Think of it as the 2010 with more minerality and precision. It has astonishing richness and length as well as massive body with great acidity."

Wine Advocate, 01/10/2012

"Doré intense, le reflet vert, le nez se confit de nêfle, citron et d'amande. La bouche semble n'être que rondeur, c'est sans compter sur l'amertume racée de la réglisse, le souffle iodé qui semble surgir d'un lointain passé, sur l'acidité de l'agrumes, rondeur de miel, acacia et oranger, fleur de tilleul et accents de vanille. Laurent Deconninck nous y associe une queue de homard charnue et nerveuse, délicatement ointe d'argan, relevé d'un soupçon de gingembre et de piment thaï, on croit rêver..."

"The Châteauneuf-du-Pape Roussanne Vieilles Vignes, from 100% old vine Roussanne, is the Montrachet of southern France. The 2011 is sensational, a wine of great complexity, intensity and full-bodied power. Lots of rose petal, marmalade, honeysuckle, candle wax, tangerine and orange rind notes make up this fabulously rich, intense wine that just blows me away every time i taste it in its youth. Whether it ages well or not is always debatable, but i would certainly drink it over the next 4-5 years, given the fact that it is so remarkable already."

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate

"Mittleres Gelb mit grünlichen Reflexen, Iod und Salz im Duft, dezente Vanillenote, mittlere Fruchtfülle, gefälliger Nachhall. Bester Trinkzeitraum bis 2023."

Armin Diel, Fine Das Weinmagazin, 17/10/2013

17/20

"This is the famous all-Roussanne cuvée. It seemed scented, quite oaky, rich, very full bodied and had markedly low acidity. I persuaded myself it was a Viognier, possibly from outside Europe. A particularly blustering Yalumba perhaps?"

"La robe jaune or est brillante. L'olfaction est intense et très séduisante, avec des arômes de pêches (chair et noyaux), d'oranges, de citron, d'amande amère, d'herbes aromatiques (dont le romarin) d'épices douces (gingembre), et des notes de miel d'acacia. L'attaque est haute, d'une pure et délicieuse douceur tactile, le vin prend de l'ampleur et du volume (encore plus accentués le lendemain), dans un admirable corps charnu agrémenté de fruits intenses, finement épicés. La finale est longue, autoritaire, pure, précise, très harmonieuse (très bonne fraîcheur), intense et complexe dans son expression aromatique, avec de très légers amers (peaux de fruits et noyaux), très saline dans son ultime sensation."

Daniel Sériot, Paper Blog, 28/10/2014

"Extravagant is the word for this wine, from its sweet oral scents to its saturated texture. A blend of 80 percent roussanne and twenty percent grenache blanc fermented in tank, it's like an eternal well of flavor, juicy, oral, herbal and spicy. The acidity rides through the flavors like an electric current, invisibly energizing the wine, and promising to hold it strong while it mellows in the cellar. It is delicious now for a celebratory meal, but should be even more compelling in another six to twelve years, when the minerality has had more time to assert its presence."

"A great white wine vintage, according to owner François Perrin, this is now taking on some copper hints to its appearance. A very rich style, with quite noticeable oak notes, it's powerful and concentrated, almost chewy with extract and distinctly honeyed. The mineral side and the salinity is firm here, in this bold, muscular and strong vintage of this cuvée, with a long finish. This wine is from a single parcel of Roussanne, planted in 1919 and grown biodynamically."
