A faithful expression of Côtes du Rhône Rosé, keep this wine on hand to enjoy during the summer.

PRESENTATION

An intense rosé typical of Côtes du Rhône.

THE VINTAGE

Despite climatic challenges throughout the year requiring constant vigilance and considerable work in the vineyard, the 2024 vintage looks very promising. The harvest began on August 2nd, and the last grapes were picked on October 3rd. Each vineyard was harvested at perfect maturity, with grapes that were both balanced and expressive. The work in the vineyards was demanding, but the efforts made should result in wines of high quality. The first tastings reveal wines with a very good balance, combining fruitiness, tension and finesse. With optimal phenolic maturity, supported by good acidity, they also reveal great freshness and a beautiful structure. Promising qualities for this 2024 vintage which should stand out for its aromatic richness and its aging capacity.

LOCATION

This wine is produced from our vineyard Le Grand Prébois in Orange.

TERROIR

There are 2 types of soils at Le Grand Prébois, stone, clay and limestone on one side and gravel and clay on the other.

AGEING

The grapes are harvested early in the morning to benefit from the freshness of the night. The proximity of the vines to the Grand Prébois cellars allows the grapes to be pressed straight after picking. After pressing, the juices are cold settled in order to remove suspended particles. The alcoholic fermentation takes place in stainless steel tanks and lasts about 15 days, the temperatures are regulated between 14 and 16 °C. The wines are then racked and aged in stainless steel tanks until bottling.

VARIETALS

Cinsault, Grenache, Mourvèdre, Syrah

SERVING

Serve chilled with fresh melon salad, feta quinoa and pumpkin seeds.

TASTING

The wine has a pale-peach colour, with silver highlights that gives it shininess. The nose is complex and rich, with a present bitterness that brings depth. Notes of pear drops offer a mixture of fruity and floral scents. The attack is fresh and aromatic, marked by aromas of pomegranate and raspberries bringing a delicate freshness and a slight acidity. The bitterness at the end of the mouth gives a beautiful length, giving the wine great structure. The wine is round and well balanced.
