

FAMILLE PERRIN

Les Crus

Perrin & fils Vacqueyras

Produced on a very clayey terroir with stones from the Ouvèze river, the Grenache is dominant and develops a fleshy wine. The typical aromas of chocolate, cherry and fig match beautifully with the Syrah (violet, spice, liquorice).

"To those unfamiliar, this label is wonderfully cryptic.

Let me talk you through it. Vacqueyras is the name of appellation that lies between the villages of Sarrians and Vaison la Romaine in southeastern France. The producer is Perrin & Fils, who made their name with the famous Châteauneuf du Pape wine, Château de Beaucastel. In short, they are one of the most reliable wine producers in the Rhône and a name to look out for. The blend is 75% Grenache and 25% Syrah, and it is exquisite. The nose is joyous, with supple notes of raspberry, blueberry and blackberry, while the finish is intense and powerfull. A wonderful wine to accompany roast meats, stews and hearty foods."

"Dark, with a nice juicy beam of blackberry and crushed red currant fruit backed by graphite and dark licorice notes on the finish. This fleshes out nicely in the glass. Rock-solid. Drink now through 2010. 4,580 cases made. –JM"
